The republicans of the sixth election district held a large and enthusiastic meeting last night at Germantown. Much interest was manifested in the republican candidates. Every mention of Captain Mc-Donald's name brought forth outbreaks of denthusiasm. The speakers were: Prof. A. J. Neverson, one of Montgomery's gifted sons; Lawyer Oliver F. Gray, the well-known Ohio orator, and Andrew Jenkins of this district.

Mr. Mc-Gonigle, for he has given a great deal of study to the subject and in addition has the merit of being an entertaining lecturer. He held the attention of his audience closely and kept his hearers thoroughly inter-ested in his description of the climate, re-sources and wealth of the state, which oc-cuples a unique position in the nation on account of its tropical character. The lecture was handsomely illustrated with stere-opticon views, which aided the lecturer in giving a complete idea of the scenery and regetation of the state.

AN APPEAL FOR ASSISTANCE

Alexandria County Citizens Look to Washington for Aid.

Say They Are Confronted With a Task That Overtaxes Their Means.

To the Editor of The Evening Star:

The interest of the Washington public, as evidenced by the several editorials and comments which have appeared in the press as to the condition of affairs in Alexandria county, together with the mock trials which have so recently disgraced the name of law, would seem to justify a setting forth of the position of the Citizens' League of this ounty respecting these matters. There are four methods by which lawlessness of the character, now prevalent in Alexandria county may be suppressed: First. through the conscientious discharge of their duties on the part of the duly elected officers; second, by laying before incompetent and venal officers specific infractions of law and furnishing testimony in support thereof; third, upon failure of the former two, impeachment of officers; fourth, the exdifferent port wines: 50c. full qt., rich, deep treme measures which have always been the last resort of an outraged community and a free people in the suppression of law essness after continued miscarriage of jus-

Only One Practicable Plan. The first method has been tried and found wanting. The result of the recent trials of gamblers shows the futility and impotency of the second. To prevent the execution of the fourth method, the Citizens' League was organized, and, therefore, for practical purposes, so far as we are concerned, it dees not exist.

The only method remaining is the impeachment of officers. This is a very serious and difficult undertaking, involving the applications of counsels. large expense in the employment of counsel of the highest ability. We would have to fight not only all the gamblers of Alexandria county from the "runner" to the two 'big chiefs," to whose will all the petty gamblers of the county must bend, and who elect and therefore control our officers, but we also would have to fight the head of the combination of policy shops in New York who receives tribute from all the gamblers of the country engaged in policy.

Unlimited Means of the Gamblers. These people have unlimited means with which to oppose any reform in our county affairs; no official is too low and none too high not to be subject to their will when occasion demands; and they control the best legal talent in Alexandria city. It is to be deplored that in Alexandria city. It is to be deplored that in order to support the mothers, daughters and wives of a few in the historical old city of Alexandria, the heart-strings of thousands of mothers, daughters and wives in the city of Washington should be cut in twain and gray heads bowed in shame, but as long as legal talents are a purchasable commodity public condemnation will have little weight.

Gambling in its worst forms is enough.

Gambling in its worst forms is openly carried on nightly in the county. This is as well known to the county officers as it is to the general public, but, for reasons best known to them, it will not be suppressed. Neither would success crown the efforts of the league in bringing these gamblers to trial on evidence now in our possession, be fore these officers.

Help is Needed.

While the respectable people of our county recognize that the lawlessness prevailing in our midst is a disgrace, materially injuring the most beautiful residence section around the national capital. and while we are in earnest and uncompromising in our efforts at suppression, yet we feel that it is almost impossible for sa small county, with a population of about 5,000, to stand, alone and unaided, the onslaught of the vicious element of a city of 300,000, nor do we think it just that we should. We know that where one youth in Alexandria county breaks his mother's heart or disgraces the family name through grambling in these neferious received. gambling in these neferious resorts, a and names disgraced in the city of Washingion. We know that our population is composed largely of small farmers of the most limited means, while the city of Washington has many wealthy and charitable citizens within its borders.

these reasons, among others, we think we do not overstep the bounds of propriety in appealing to the Washington public, not only for their moral support, but also their material support, in our efforts to suppress that which affects principally only our material prosperity, but which is surely and rapidly undermining the morals of many of Washington's

A SPIRITUALISTS' RECEPTION.

How the Recent Convention Ended in a Pleasant Manner. A reception was held at Masonic Temple last evening by the Ladles' Aid Society of the spiritualists of Washington to delegates of the national spiritualists' convention, which had been in session here during the three preceding days. The day had been spent by the delegates in making excursions to Mount Vernon and the Soldiers' Home, and in the evening they gathered at Masonic Temple. The reception committee consisted of the president of the Aid Society, Mrs. Jaquess; the vice presidents, Mrs. Clendaniel and Mrs. Ferguson; the secretary, Mrs. Dr. Squire, and Mrs. Wheeler Brown, Mrs. White, Mrs. Woodbury and Mrs. Damon of the board of trustees. After an hour and a half had been spent by the delegates in getting better acquaint-ed, the evening session was called to order and an interesting program was rendered. Spiritualistic tests were given by Mrs. Prior of Canada and Miss Maggie Gaule of Baltimore. Mrs. Wheeler Brown gave a piano soio, and a quartet, consisting of Mr. and Miss Sullivan, Mrs. Penny and Miss Bacon, was well received. Mr. Sullivan Bacon, was well received. Mr. Sullivan gave character impersonations; Miss Annie Bacon rendered a plano solo, which was enthusiastically encored. Miss Thrall's recitation, Master Charles Hatch's violin solo, J. H. Altemus' songs and Prof. E. A. Whitelaw's rendition of Schubert's Serended were all well received.

The democratic central committee met at Myers' Hotel last night and arranged to observe October 31 as flag day, a resolution being passed reciting: "That in acstandard bearer, William Jennings Bryan, the democratic central committee of the District of Columbia request every demoerat in the District to decorate his home or place of business with United States flags on the 31st day of October, 1896."

A committee was appointed to replace the canner which hung across the avenue between the National and St. James hotels and to decorate it with United States flags. A conation of $50 was made to the national campaign fund. It was decided to receive election returns at Myers' Hotel. Lafayette Square Opera House.-There are few who interpret the works of Shakespeare so acceptably as Thomas W. Keene, the tragedian, who will appear in his varied repertoire of Shakespearean and other classic plays at the Lafayette Square Opera House next week. Mr. Keene is accompanied by and under the management of Charles B. Hanford, the popular young tragedian of this city, and a large supporting company. Mr. Keene will present all the plays in his repertoire, which has been arranged as follows: Monday, "Louis XI;" Tuesday, "Richelieu;" Wednesday matinee, "Ingomar," in which Mr. Hanford will appear in the title role, assisted by Mr. Keene's complete company; Wednesday night, "Hamlet;" Thursday, "Julius Caesar:" Friday, "Othello;" Saturday matinee, "The Merchant of Venice;" Saturday night, "Richard III." These plays show the remarkable versatility of Mr. Keene, and they will no doubt attract large audiences during the week. Monday is Mr. Keene's birthday, and his numerous friends in this city will probably arrange to celebrate the event. It has been several years since he presented "Julius Caesar," although it af-fords him, in the role of "the lean and hungry Cassius," an opportunity to display his rare dramatic genius. Mr. Han-ford also has a strong part in this play, in the role of Marc Antony, in which he has won distinction. The opening bill presents Mr. Keene in one of his greatest characters. "Louis XI" was rewritten for Mr. Keene and new situations introduced. All the acts and climaxes are described as strong, well arranged and logically devel-oped. Since the death of Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett he has occupied almost alone that field of dramatic work in which both of them won renown. Among the members of Mr. Keene's company are Grace Hopkins, Mary Timberman, Marie Drofnah, Mrs. S. A. Baker, Carl Ahrendt, Lawrence Lowell, Bertram Temple, John Milton, Paul Taylor and Lawrence F. Walker. Walker.

Ada Rehan.-Miss Ada Rehan comes to Ada Rehan.—Miss Ada Rehan comes to the Lafayette Square Opera House election week, appearing in the following repertoire: Monday, "Taming the Shrew;" Tuesday, "London Assurance;" Wednesday, "School for Scandal;" Thursday, "Love on Crutches;" Friday evening and Saturday matinee, "As You Like It;" Saturday evening, "Taming the Shrew."

Grand Opera House .- "Shannon of the Sixth," which will appear at the Grand Opera House next week, is one of the strongest military plays now before the public. It deals with a young Irishman who has achieved notoriety through his bravery during the Sepoy rising in India and follows his upward career through the fortunes and misfortunes of war. The opportunities for dramatic force are many, and W. H. Power, who impersonates the leading character, takes advantage of all of them. There is everything in the piece calculated to hold the interest of those who see it, while the introduction of hypnotism, theosophy and occult science, those great mysteries of the eastern land, and which are unexplained up to the present day, gives the production a flavor and snap that add to the interest and lend additiona force to the delineation of the characters. New National Theater.-Next week the ttraction will be the operatic comedy

Academy of Music.—"Oriental America' wifl hold the stage next week, The Bijou Theater-The attraction at the Bijou Family Theater next week will be Al. G. Field's "Darkest America." In it are eighty real southern negroes. Home life among the negroes is the basis of the entertainment, showing the amusements, an-tics, frolics and games of the southern negro in his humble home. The dance, songs and music are their greatest delight. Up to the beginning of the war no more interesting people lived than the negro slaves of the south. Their games and amusements were fascinating to all people. Time has nearly obliterated the genuine plantation negro. He is very seldom seen, but he is just as interesting as of yore. Kernan's Lyceum Theater-Once every year a particularly successful vaudeville company is launched, one that, from its its features may be mentioned: Speck Brothers, the laughable dwarf com-edians, in their comical sparring act; the two American Macs, the men who set the world laughing; Rice and Elmer, comedy bar gymnasts, in a "Trip to China Town;" Frank Latona, the Hoodoo Musician; Leon-ard and Barnard; Montgomery and Stone; Annie Whitney, the peerless queen of song the Great Bringham; Ladell and Alvers Hill, Egerton and Knoel. The Fisk Testimonial.-The benefit which was tendered Mr. Harry Fisk at the Lafayette Square Opera House yesterday after-noon by the different managers of the playhouses in this city was one of the most enjoyable events of the kind ever given in Washington. At the same time that it furnished an excellent entertainment for those who bought the tickets for it it illustrated the good will, kindheartedness and the charity which the people of Wash-irgton evince whenever one of their numer is in distress. Mr. Fisk was associated with Mr. Albaugh for many years in the management of both Albaugh's Grand Opa great many of those who attended the benefit yesterday were simply repaying fa-vers which have been extended to them in the past at his hands. All of the companies now playing in the city were represented, tegether with the orchestras of the sented, together with the orchestras of the cifferent theaters, and, in fact, the only outside number on the program was Miss Helen Lamont of the city, who played such a long engagement at the Grand when Mr. Fisk was there. The names of the participants in the program have already been published, and it only need be said that every number was successfully performed, and that encores were frequent. The leaders of the orchestras at the various theaters conducted the music, while the performers from their playhouses were on the stage, Prof. Victor Johnson from the I afayette. Chris Arth, jr., from the Academy, Prof. A. W. Schroeder from the Naticnal, Prof. William V. Sauner from the Grand, and Prof. Howard Whitney from the Lyceum. The benefit was opened by a new march by Prof. Johnson, entitled "Friendship March," and dedicated to Mr. Harry Fisk. The stage was under the di-rection of Morgan A. Sherwood and every-thing went off with a smoothness and precision that was commendable.

Miss Dailey's Benefit.-Besides those who have already volunteered for the benefit to be tendered Miss Lilian Z. Dailey at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Church next Tues-Metropolitan A. M. E. Church next Tuesday evening the Amphion Glee Club will be on hand and will render several selections in its well-known spirited manner. The glee club will round out a program of rather more than the usual degree of excellence, and with Miss Dailey giving some of her experiences during the thirteen years in which she was away from home, should prove interesting and entertaining. should prove interesting and entertaining as well as lucrative.

Trinity Parish Hall.-The entertainment to be given at Trinity Parish Hall, 3d street and Indiana avenue northwest, Monday evening next at 8 o'clock promises to be very interesting. The program will consist of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and readings in negro dialect. Among those who have kindly offered their services are: Mrs. Eva Olney, Mrs. Nannie McRoberts, Miss Goodwin, Mr. Arthur D. Mayo, Mr. Kecling, Mr. Fitzhugh Golds-bcrough and the "Dixie Quartet."

Metropolitan Concerts.—The series of five concerts to be given this winter under the name of "Metropolitan Concerts" at the Columbia Opera House are attracting con-siderable attention from musicians and the siderable attention from musicians and the music-loving contingent of this city. The artists who have been engaged for the different events are among the best in the world, and there is every reason to believe that their coming to the national capital will be the occasion of signal successes. The first concert is to be given December 15, and the artists who will appear are Moritz Rosenthal in a piano recital, assisted by Miss Minen, soprano, and Sig. Quintano, violinist. Rosenthal's work on the piano needs no comment here, and it is sufficient to announce his coming and the program which he will interpret. Those who will appear in the other events are Mme. Camilla Urso, violinist; Miss Dvignes, contralto; Mr. Douglass, tenor; Mr. Behrens and Mr. F. George Phillips Dies Prom Injuries Caused by a Fall.

Secret Marriage Disclosed - Loca Notes of General and Especial Interest tol Residents.

George Phillips, the brcklayer who was hurt by a new brick chimney falling on him yesterday morning, died at his home yesterday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock from internal injuries. Mr. Phillips had been at work building a new overhanging chimney on the blacksmith shop of George Rote on Payne street, when it suddenly gave way and fell on him, knocking him backward into a box of scrap iron. Mr. Phillips was cut about the head and apparently unhurt in other ways. He got up and walked to a box, where he sat down, and in reply to an inquiry said he was not much hurt, and would be all right in a few minutes. Feeling 1ather bad, he went into the office attached to the blacksmith shop to lie down. Just as Mr. Rote return-ed to the shop, about 3:15 o'clock, Phillips awoke, calling loudly for water, of which he partook in large quantities. A physician was hastily sent for, but before one could reach his side Phillips had died. Dr. Wm. R. Purvis made an examination, and it was found that the blow on the head had caused a slight fracture, and on his right side just above his waist was a large bruise. Dr. Purvis deemed an inquest unnecessary, and decided that death had been caused by internal injuries.

Married Secretly.

It has just become known that Mr. Avery Rittenour, a well-known young drug clerk of this city, and Miss Grace Proutts of Washington were married secretly at the residence of Rev. D. H. Kern in this city on July 16 last. From what can be learned of the marriage it appears that Mr. Rittenour had not reached his majority and was afraid of parental objection, so taking the matter. taking the matter in their own hands they went to the clerk's office of the corporation court, where a license was procured and the knot tied. Mr. Rittenour told his mother of the affair last night and today all is as quiet as if the marriage bells had rung out loud and long

EXCURSIONS.

The regular oyster roast will be given at Marshall Hall tomorrow, the steamer Macalester making her regular trips at 11 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Roast oysters are peculiar to this vicinity, and they are served in all their natural deliciousness and amid surroundings that are calculated to bring all the enjoyable features of a feast on the succulent bivalves. Ladies are especially invited on these trips. The service for them will take place in the dining room. Every facility for making away with the oysters will be found at the Hall, and the best accommodations will prevail.

Travelers need make no marked changes in their plans in order to enjoy a ride down the Potomac on the Norfolk and Washingten Steamboat Company's steamers, and a short stay at Fortress Monroe, Norfolk, Virginia Beach and Ocean View. Railroads to the north, south and west, and steamers for New York and Boston, all have a starting point at Norfolk. Strangers in the east should not fail to miss this trip. Fortress Monroe and the many resorts abounding near are known the country over, as the most delightful resorts on the Atlantic seabcard. The bathing and fishing are exceptionally fine, and Chamberlin's new hotel, the Hygeia, and the Princess Anne leave nothing to be desired as far as mag-nificent hostelries are concerned. The Norfolk and Washington steamers run direct to these resorts, leaving this city at 7 p.m. daily, and arriving at Norfolk and Fortress Monroe early the following morning.

YOU HEAR SO MUCH ABOUT

THE BISHOP'S PLANS.

St. Mark's Encouraged That He Will Accept the Charge. Bishop Satterlee had an extended conference with the vestry of St. Mark's Church last evening, at his home on Highland terrace. The invitation, which the vestry recently extended to him, to select St. Mark's as the cathedral church until the erection of the Episcopal cathedral, was considered at length.

The result of the conference has not been made public, but it is believed that the matter is very near a final settlement, and matter is very near a final settlement, and the general impression is that his answer will be a favorable one. At any rate the vestry are certainly more sanguine than they have been at any time since the proposition was originally broached.
A Star reporter made an attempt to see the bishop this morning, in the hope that he might be induced to make some definite statement on the subject. The attempt was statement on the subject. The attempt was a failure, for the maid who came to the door announced that the bishop would positively see no one except by definite ap-

PERSONAL BONDS.

Some Inconsistencies in the Police Court Regulations. Prosecuting Attorney Pugh has made report to Attorney Thomas that during the last fiscal year, in Judge Kimbali's court, personal bonds were taken in 2,047 cases, or nearly one-third of all the cases in court.

Mr. Pugh has always objected to such disposition of cases, for he thinks that persons arrested are entitled to either an acquittal or conviction. The action of the court has been com mented on in legal circles and it has been

remarked that there are thousands of resi dents under the court's bond. This bond "You acknowledge yourself to be indebted to the District of Columbia in the sum of $100, all lawful money of the United States, to be levied on your goods and chat-tels, lands and tenements upon condition nevertheless that you appear in the Po lice Court of the District of Columbia from day to day until the call against you is finally disposed of and not depart the court without leave; then this recognizance to be null and void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law." Under the terms of the bond the de fendants so released are required to appear in court from day to day and should the letter of the law be complied with there is not a building in the city that would held the court of the law be complied.

BADULCERS ON LIMBS

Cause Five Years'Suffering. So Painful Could Not Sleep or Work From ITCHING AND BURNING

SIX DOCTORS COULD NOT CURE. ALL REMEDIES USELESS. DESPAIRED OF EVER BEING CURED, TRIED

CUTICURA REMEDIES Relief in First Application. Completely Cured in Three Months.

For five years I had on both my legs three very bad ulcers, two on one, and one on the other just into the bone above the ankle, as large as a 5-cent plece, which hurt me so much night and day that I could not sleep for the itching and burning. I had to get up three or four times a night. Did not know what to do with myself as I could not work. Called a doctor, but he did me no good, and in all, had six of the best doctors I could get, but they could do nothing, and I gave up all hopes of ever getting cured. Nothing did me any good until I tried CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first application, the itching, smarting and burning stopped. I kept on with them, and in three months was entirely cured. Five years I suffered, and can prove it by people where I now live. If any one doubts this, write to ree, and I will tell them with the greatest of pleasure what CUTICURA REMEDIES have done.
